

The RAD Art Club

Why are we Radical? We love our disability or challenge - it doesn't stop us!

This means we are Determined Individuals Striving And Beating Limitations Encountered Daily, the D in RAD.

We sift through the rocks, learn from each other and as a team discover the gems as the Fun, Artistic Success Centered Club under Rocky Arts Unfolded or in short RA. So that makes us the RAD Art Club!

MEDIUM ATTRACTION

By Lisa B. Corfman

I like that! Beautiful, creative, unique, special; these are all words of attraction. Our members try to awe you.

For example, Adam Sherman is a new and up and coming writer who attended May's RAD Art Club meeting. Sherman is the innovator in a series about Nowhere Island University and he presented the first chapter in a live reading. We all have skills that distinguish us. Sherman stated about Corfman, "you really seem to like origami" and continued that it is an "interesting theme."

Corfman feels that success happens when you least expect it, often occurring when you meet the audience that finds your medium attractive. Basically, love spouts medium attraction.

MEMBERS DIRECTORY

Lisa Corfman: A mixed-media origami artist, I am the president of the RAD Art Club and dream of opening an interactive museum with a store and classroom.

Mei-Lin Po: I am a friend of Lisa's via Gateway Arts studio. My creative endeavors span a variety of media in both the visual and performing arts- from drawing and sculpting to musical theater and storytelling- although my focus lately has been more on the performance side. My primary interest as an artist is in what (I guess) might be called "Moral Beauty"; in finding ways to bring greater depth, content, and substance to mainstream culture- the books, movies, plays, and tv shows "out there"- and to refute the common (and I believe, false) idea that Good is somewhat boring, while Evil is more exciting or fun.

Tamara Safford: I am an abstract expressionist artist, working acrylics and watercolor. I like to paint and draw landscapes, portraits and occasionally I work with collage. My pleasure in life is creating art. Art is a statement of being in the here and now.

Adam Sherman: I'm a writer currently working on the web serial Nowhere Island University. I am also infiltrating this group of people who can actually draw. I think they're on to me.

Michael Ventura: I'm a film major who enjoys drawing in pencil and painting watercolors. I want to learn about marketing. I like to do paintings of nature that concentrate on how the objects relate to each other spatially and to the frame.
